Lifelong Learning Programme 2007-2013

PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES

- 27 Member States of EU
- Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Turkey, Croatia, Switzerland

GRUNDTVIG programme

Nikolai Frederik Severin Grundtvig (1783-1872)

- Danish clergyman, writer and poet
- Founder of the Nordic tradition lifelong learning
- Pioneer of the folk high schools

“Education must be available for everyone throughout life!”

WHY?

GRUNDTVIG WORKSHOP

- “ Enables adult learners to participate in learning events and seminars taking place in a European country other than their own.
- “ Brings together individuals or small groups of learners (10-20 people) from several countries for their personal development and learning needs.
- “ Learners are also encouraged to share their competences and insights with others.

WHY?

GRUNDTVIG WORKSHOP “EDUCATION THROUGH SPORT”

- “ Introduces the Estonian culture and sport traditions.
- “ Offers to the participants the experience of lifelong learning.
- “ Helps to develop participants’ important individual and social skills and raise their social activity.
- “ Gives to the participants experiences in the synergy of the multinational team spirit, sharing their competences and insights with others.

WHY SPORT?

Sport has a power to influence people with very different cultural and social background, so it can be used as a tool in the education process, providing competence development for personal fulfilment and giving an impulse to live more actively.
